STONEHAVEN NOMINATIONS

“ The STONEHAVEN MEDAL - Awarded annually to a Tingira Australia Association member or members for a commendable community service contribution above and beyond the normal call of duty,” said Tingira President Brad Murphy from his Bundaberg HQ today.

Tingira members and friends, time to nominate a shipmate for a job well done.

The traditions of the Royal Australian Navy are deep, and the Tingira Australia Association has taken the responsibility over the past decade to keep the ‘sea lanes of history’ open.

Researching and displaying as much history and tradition as possible from the Clipper Ship and Nautical School Ship Sobraon, HMAS Tingira, HMAS Leeuwin, and HMAS Cerberus with their training day activities of our present generation of members and friends of the Tingira Australia Association.

The Stonehaven Medal is designed to resemble the style of the Stonehaven family crest with black and yellow stripes bearing the HMAS Leeuwin colours where the present generation of Tingira Boys received their initial Royal Australian Navy Junior Recruit training.

Nominations close 1 March 2022, winner to be announced with Tingira Day celebrations Saturday 16 July 2022.

The Cumberland RSL sub-Branch has supported the Tingira Australia Association from the inception of this award and will continue to promote joint activities of this event.
