RSL DefenceCare

Through RSL DefenceCare, RSL NSW helps Australian veterans and their families in times of injury, illness or crisis.

Services include DVA claims and advocacy support, counselling, disaster assistance, financial assistance, and housing assistance. These services are free of charge and are available to veterans in need, as well as the families of veterans.

Military service can have an impact on the wellbeing and quality of life of individuals and their families. This can include physical and mental illness and injury. The impact can also extend to family members who support an ill or injured veteran.

Through the services RSL DefenceCare provides, RSL NSW aims to help Australian veterans and their families get through difficult times.

LIGHT UP THE DAWN

This ANZAC Day

This ANZAC Day, RSL invites all Australians to unite safely to honour our nation's veterans. How will you Light Up the Dawn?

Make the choice your own, commemorate at a traditional dawn service at your local cenotaph or honour them from home at 6am. Light Up The Dawn was an idea that originated within the Australian community. The RSL supported and promoted the idea across Australia in 2020 and further supported it in 2021.

This year commemorate our veterans across Australia and come together, whether at traditional services or by commemorating personally at home.

Wherever you Light Up the Dawn this year, show your support and commemorate with your community this Anzac Day.

2022 TINGIRA AUSTRALIA

ANZAC DAY

Our Day To Stand Proud

'Tingira Boys' are up and about again this year for the annual ANZAC Day march. The Tingira banner is going up in three capital cities and two regional towns around our nation on this most precious day for our veteran community.

Anzac Day is our most sacred day of the year.

As a national association truly united remembering our past veterans and the many navy Tingira Boys in the first and second generations who have gone before us, this is our proudest moment for them alone.

On this day many former JR's gather under the Tingira banner, renew old friendships as many new ones are made. This year we will have another 100 odd new members back on board the good ship Tingira. Many will make their way to the Anzac march looking for the 'Tingira banner' for the first time; please make them welcome, we are all still close shipmates after all these years.

This day is also our 110th birthday for the commissioning of HMAS Tingira on this very special day on 25 April 1912. We will sing happy birthday another day, our association will celebrate our JR birthday 13 July, the day of the first intake at HMAS Leeuwin back in 1960.

Please remember this is a 'commemoration event, not a celebration party,' it's not an official holiday to just get smashed at the local dig after the march; Tingira Boys, we 'Will Remember Them' this is our duty, on this day.

I will not journey from Queensland to Sydney this year, as I will conduct a local service here in Bundaberg with many former JRs that are growing in numbers and stature. All JRs in the district welcome to attend morning dawn service (0430) at the Ashfield medical practise. Following month, I will go south, Canberra Friday 6 May, for the often very cold 'Coral Sea' commemoration, attended by many of our ACT & NSW Tingira members.

Credit to the statewide Anzac Day coordinators, who have again stepped up to organise your march and after-party reunion. Please support them on this day, it's a massive task and they are volunteers on our front line, BZ lads.

Enjoy the march, make a new friend or two amongst your ranks, that is what this association is all about; renewing old and making new friendships. Bring your partner and family along for the day if possible, it's a great reunion day for us all.

FREE PUBLIC TRANSPORT ACROSS SYDNEY NETWORK

Free public transport will begin on April 14 and run for 12 days and will include Anzac Day.

The free travel comes after weeks of tense negotiations between the state government and rail union over pay and workplace conditions which culminated in a 24-hour shutdown of the train network last month.

NSW Transport Minister David Elliott this morning said the move was "not just a union versus Transport for NSW initiative".

"We need to stimulate economic activity and Business Sydney were advocating in favour of these fare free days as a means to get people into the city, into Parramatta," he said.

Mr Elliott said the free transport would be available "from Newcastle to the Blue Mountains to the South Coast".

The free travel will include trains, buses and ferries, but not private ferries, the airport line and Point to Point bus service.

Mr Elliott said it would be a "wonderful opportunity for families to save money", with the free transport taking place during school holidays and including events such as the Royal Easter Show and NRL matches.

The Transport Minister said he had spoken to the union over the free travel and hoped it would "set aside" its threat of further industrial action as a sign of "good faith".

The NSW Rail, Tram and Bus Union (RTBU) earlier said it would use industrial action to "force" the state government to offer free fares to commuters every Friday until June.

RTBU secretary Alex Claassens said the move was fallout from the government's decision to shut down the train network without warning last month, locking out workers and leaving thousands of commuters stranded.

The union confirmed that the industrial action planned would be similar to that taken in the lead-up to February 21, when Transport NSW took the eleventh-hour decision to shut down the entire network due to "safety concerns".

Mr Elliott said part of the reason for the 12 days of free travel was to compensate commuters for the disruptions on the rail network.

"The shutdown of the network last month was something that needed to be compensated," he said.

"To commuters affected by recent rail disruptions, I want to say a heartfelt thank you for your patience."
