UPDATE No.2

ANZAC MARCH

TINGIRA NATIONAL ANZAC DAY PROGRAM - VOICEpipe magazine on website

This year Anzac Day parades are shaping up to be one of our best Tingira representations nationally for many years.

The Queensland boys in Cairns, Bundaberg, and Brisbane have rattled the chain of locals, their numbers are strong a week out, praying for no rain! The call is out in Sydney strong numbers expected with a few Leeuwin intake reunions happening on that weekend in town, so expect a big contingent down Elizabeth Street. We welcome JR James Bishop to the helm, who will lead the Melbourne boys down St Kilda road for the first time in many years, well done James. The ever-reliable Stephen Beal will again muster the Adelaide Boys with a new sign out front as HMAS Leeuwin and the stalwart of our association Paul Kalajzich will gather the boys at Leeuwin Barracks for dawn service before taking on a new route towards Kings Park Perth, great effort all round Tingira Boys.

Tingira Secretary Mark Lee will conduct another quick AGM before the Sydney Boys have refreshments at the Emden Gun in Hyde Park. All around let's hope we get the weather on our side across the nation as there also seems to be good 'quality' media support around this year's Anzac Day events.

Thank you to all who have committed to the day, enjoy your new and rekindled mateships with other Tingira Boys and their families.

Long Live Tingira - Mates For Life.

SYDNEY UPDATE

Sydney CBD March

An event like no other, the ANZAC Day March brings the Sydney CBD to a standstill as over 9,000 current serving members and veterans of the Australian Defence Force file past the Anzac Memorial to pay their respects to the fallen.

Spectators are invited to line Elizabeth Street and show their support for the brave men and women who have served their country, and remember those who made the ultimate sacrifice or suffered as a result of their service.

The ANZAC Day March begins at 9am at the intersection of Elizabeth Street and Martin Place, finishing at Liverpool Street at approximately 12.30pm.
