JUNIOR RECRUITS REUNION

DRESS of the DAY ... GUIDELINES

'Uniform Confusion' is something that former Navy shipmates, as well as present and past members of the RAN, cannot tolerate very well; the 'dress of the day' is often something one thinks about long before attending an event, even if it is specified on the event invitation.

To answer the question of 'what do I wear at the six different JR Reunion events in November,' the following page provides a detailed event breakdown with some uniform guidelines for Tingira Australia Association members, and past RAN Junior Recruit members who may be attending some or all of the seven events over the six-day reunion period.

And for the partners, as always, they will match their sailor without question!

Please get in touch with the Tingira Secretary if you have any further concerns.
